

Prinz zu Salm-Dalberg'sches Weingut - Nahe

Wine: 2008 Two Princes" P2 PS29-08 with Stelvin closure, Rated 91 points, Wine & Spirits Mag., Dec. issue

Producer: Schloss Wallhausen is one of Germany's oldest traditional wine estates. Prinz zu Salm, the estate owner and current president of the VdP (Association of Prädikat Wine Estates), can trace his family tree back to 932 and his vineyards to 1200.

Region/Vine yards: The Nahe vineyards are scattered among the fields and orchards of the Hunsrück hills and the Soonwald forest, situated between the Rhine and Mosel valleys.

"Two Princes" P2 is the signature wine of Prince Michael and Prince Constantin zu Salm-Salm, members of the 31st and 32nd generation of winemakers at the family's estate Schloss Wallhausen. Their winery is known for exquisite Rieslings.

Vintage: Warm weather in spring fostered an early flowering. Summer was typical with no extremes of temperature or storm, but with more rain than in 2007, but equal to the 10-year average. Periodic rainfall delayed picking, but there were enough dry periods to harvest healthy grapes and it paid to wait for ideal ripeness. The wines of vintage 2008 are promising: rich in nuances and substance, complex, very aromatic – and all this, with moderate levels of alcohol.

Taste Profile: P2 displays a perfect balance between sweetness, acidity and minerality. Delicate flavours of apricot and nectarine, with a lovely, crisp finish.

Wine Profile: Alc. by Vol.: 11.0 %, residual sugar: 2.81 %(28.1 g/l), acidity: 0.76 % (7.6 g/l)
Grape variety: 100 % Riesling
